

Biography for David Nason

David Nason has been involved in the construction industry in some way since graduating from high school. He served in a Construction Battalion as an Engineering Aide in the U.S. Navy Reserve for 8 years and graduated from The University of Wisconsin – Milwaukee School of Architecture in 1991. With more than 25 years of experience as a carpenter, designer, project manager, production manager, and other jobs in residential, commercial, and restoration construction; David has a thorough understanding about every aspect of homes and buildings.

After getting his home inspector license in 2013, David partnered with Tom Feiza, Mr. Fix-It, in 2014 to learn the home inspection trade; he is now closing in on 2000 home inspections. Like Tom, in addition to home inspections he also performs construction defect inspections as a building exterior expert. David earned his Level I EIFS Inspector certification in August 2018 and additional certifications as a Level II Building Envelope, EIFS, Stucco, and Adhered Stone Veneer Inspector in March 2020 through the Exterior Design Institute. He has also made several presentations to professional groups and to the Milwaukee WAHI Chapter about home maintenance and exterior defect inspections.

Also in March 2020, David began hosting The Fix-It Show on AM 620 WTMJ in Milwaukee, WI every Saturday morning from 7am-9am after Tom retired from his very long and successful ride as host of the show.

David is currently serving as the Chair of the WAHI Arbitration Committee.
